Thank you to all of you who have donated to the USO!
Keep those CASH AND CHECK donations coming!

EVRWP is no longer accepting toiletry items for the USO in Palm Springs. Instead, we are asking for cash donations so we can purchase the toiletries ourselves. That way, we can make sure we are getting the items that USO needs to fill the travel packs they put together for 29 Palms Marines traveling into and out of the PS airport. The donations can be made at our monthly luncheons where there is a Support the Troops table and donation jar or at headquarters. We appreciate any amount from a dollar on up. One very generous person made a $100 donation at our last luncheon.

Thanks to donations, we were able to purchase nearly $400 worth of items that we donated to USO in February. However, we have very few funds left. PLEASE DONATE.

Robinson also states that @BarackObama and @HillaryClinton are still involved behind the scenes at the White House.

Tyler Robinson, Special Advisor to the Chief of Staff of Administrator @SBAIsabel Guzman, details how @WhiteHouse directs @SBAIsabel Guzman to campaign for @POTUS so constantly that "[Guzman] is the most traveled member of the cabinet. Like pretty much every week."

Under the guise of talking to small business owners, Guzman travels across the country to help elect Democrats – especially swing state Democrats like @SenatorTester: "The White House was like, yes, go. Invite Senator Tester. Don't invite the other Senator because he's a Republican. And don't invite the two members of Congress because they're Republicans." Such actions may be considered potential violations of the Hatch Act, which restricts federal employees from taking an active part in partisan political management and forbids them from campaigning for or against candidates.

Robinson says Guzman acts "as a spokesperson for Biden" as "...we try to visit with a member of Congress if they're a Democrat...Just because then we can help them get re-elected as well."

And One More Thing from Chairman Arlene Wohlgemuth... Affirmative Action

When Californians passed Proposition 209 in 1996 to end racial preference in higher education, most people thought that affirmative action policies were going out the window. Merit would replace skin color, and applicants would be neither advantaged nor disadvantaged on that basis, much as Martin Luther King, Jr. had dreamed. Or so we thought.

Now, California Progressives are bringing back affirmative action type policies with a vengeance. A good example is SB 1007 - Homeowner's Assistance for Descendants of Enslaved Persons.

"Descendant" (as defined in the bill) means an African American descendant of a chattel enslaved person, or a descendant of a free Black person living in the United States prior to the end of the 19th century. The program is established for the purpose of making financial aid or assistance available to descendants for the purpose of purchasing, owning, or maintaining a home.

To receive a grant or financial aid under this program you must (1) be Black, (2) live in the state, and (3) be the descendant of an African American, whether enslaved or free, who lived in the U.S. prior to 1900. In other words, this bill is a form of reparations even though California was admitted as a free state and fought on the side of the Union in the Civil War. It is difficult to rationalize why Californians should be paying reparations other than to enforce the Marxist label of White Supremacy on the non-Black populace.

Another way the Democrat legislature is enacting affirmative action is to reinvent it as DEI, which stands for Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion. While DEI is not exclusive to a particular race, DEI policies favor one class of people over others with a potpourri of possible "oppressed" groups – the very definition of affirmative action. Bills this session that require application of DEI are AB 2319 (hospital training) and SB 1177 (utility company requirement). These are just two of the many DEI bills across every policy area.

Affirmative action, regardless of who is being advantaged, is detrimental to our culture and our prosperity. Being rewarded on anything other than our own work and achievements is ultimately demoralizing, but merit-based rewards are fulfilling and produce excellence.

Let's reject affirmative action, DEI, and all efforts to separate us into Marxist classes of oppressed and oppressor.

From Legislation Chairman Arlene Wohlgemuth...

I am pleased to share with you this information that I have long been trying to find. The name of it is Biblical Roadmap put out by Christians Engaged. They have taken the exact wording from the Democratic and Republican platforms along with Scripture and Marxist references. A full page is devoted to each issue covered. Take a look, and I think you will be as pleased as I am.

Use this QR code to see the one I requested that is specifically tailored for us in California.

Printed copies are available at headquarters or at the next luncheon for a donation to EVRWP of any amount.

What can we do NOW to help our candidates win in November?

- 1) Learn about the candidates and donate.
- 2) Help at East Valley headquarters or at the headquarters of the candidate.
- 3) Inform yourself on the issues and get out and talk to people. Be sure you have a list of President Trumps accomplishment in his first term. Talk to people who will listen in an educational tone of voice. (list of accomplishments) Talk while you wait in line or while you are having coffee.
- 4) Be sure you know what MAGA stands for.
- 5) Wear a hat that has meaning for you like "I stand for the flag" which can be a a conversation opener in your favorite coffee shop, restaurant or Costco.

TRUMP RALLIES ON THESE WEBSITES

Trump media company preparing livestream content for Truth Social

The unnamed streaming platform plans to give creators a 'guaranteed platform where they won't be cancelled'

Timothy Nerozzi

Former President Donald Trump's social media company is planning to soon roll out a live-streaming platform.

Trump Media & Technology Group Corp. (TMTG) announced Tuesday that the upcoming content delivery network will begin on the Truth Social app.

"After six months of testing on its Web and iOS platforms, [TMTG] has finished the research and development phase of its new live TV streaming platform and will begin scaling up its own content delivery network," the company said in a press release.

The livestream channel is set to expand outside Truth Social into its own stand-alone app, then eventually to home TV. The unnamed livestream network is being billed similarly to other TMTG ventures, aiming to operate outside the control of Big Tech companies.

"We're excited to move forward with the next big phase for Truth Social," TMTG CEO Devin Nunes said. "With our streaming content, we aim to provide a permanent home for high-quality news and entertainment that face discrimination by other channels and content delivery services."

He added, "There is a lot of great content that simply can't find an audience for unjust reasons, and we want to let these creators know they'll soon have a guaranteed platform where they won't be cancelled."

The Truth Social app is Trump's proprietary social media platform, which he has used since 2022. The former president has used it as an alternative to his Twitter and Facebook accounts, from which he was banned in 2021 following the Jan. 6 Capitol protests.

"The streaming content is expected to focus on live TV including news networks, religious channels, family-friendly content including films and documentaries; And other content that has been cancelled, is at risk of cancellation, or is being suppressed on other platforms and services," the company said in its release. Specific content offerings have not yet been announced.

Trump Media and Technology Group

The mission of Trump Media & Technology Group ("Trump Media") is to end Big Tech's assault on free speech by opening up the internet and giving people their voices back. Trump Media operates Truth Social, a social media platform established as a safe harbor for free expression amid increasingly harsh censorship by Big Tech corporations.

While it is a command in the bible to submit and obey the authorities that be, we do not submit to an evil authority that goes against the word of God. In cases, such as that we are to stand strong and fight for what we know to be right... just as Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego did in the book of Daniel when they were under an evil rule. Christians need to be verbal about the wrongs that are happening in our country... To do nothing in the face of evil is evil itself! Apathy is a huge problem in this country, and God tells us "If you are lukewarm I will spew you out of my mouth." God does not appreciate apathy... Stand for what you know to be right. Join us at East Valley Republican Women Patriots where we are making a difference in our country.

About Digital Democracy

Digital Democracy is a CalMatters project using technology and data to increase transparency, accountability and understanding about California state legislators and the decisions they make about state policy.

The project was inspired by the decline in media coverage of state government and by the significant impact of decisions made in a state that ranks as the world's fifth largest economy with an annual budget of about $300 billion. It is a portal for a general, non-expert audience to understand the people and activities in state government so there is a better opportunity for civic engagement and a healthier environment for decisions in the public interest. It is also intended to help journalism by providing reporters with quick and easy access to a vast amount of information.

This page full of articles for you to get started on for your own investigation was inspired idea because of the lack of media coverage we have in this country and in our own backyard. This is a way to get involved in your community learning about your community and then doing something about what needs to be changed. Find the solution. Be the change you want to see. Get involved but first do your homework by researching the internet. These articles came from the internet not the lame stream media. Have fun but be correct in your information.
